Helping LGBTQ people in Upstate New York achieve their goals of building and sustaining healthy families since 2000.

Volume 5 Issue 3

Spring/Summer 2010

Happy Spring/Summer!

Late spring has arrived in upstate New York! This edition of the Pride and Joy Families Newsletter is dedicated to informing you about the goings on for LGBTQ families in the coming months. Please review these pages and find out about programs and events taking place in Syracuse, Binghamton, Ithaca and Rochester. We hope to see your family at one or more of them!

Meanwhile, you are invited to join us as we celebrate the 10 Year Anniversary of the Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project and our Pride and Joy Families network on Saturday, May 15th from 6:30 to 8:30 pm in Syracuse, NY. The Q Center @ ACR (a beautiful LGBTQ youth space) will house the celebration, which will feature a reading by Vince Sgambati, kid activities, including magic and balloon animals by Jeff Sterling, lovely refreshments for grown-ups and for kids, including a chocolate fountain, a slide show of images of our families over the years, giveaways, and a timeline that permits you to add your family's dates-to-remember. Please RSVP to lesgayfamblgd@aol.com or phone at 607.724.4308.

2011 Pride and Joy Families Weekend Conference. We are thrilled to announce the date and location of our fourth LGBTQ families conference: April 8-10, 2011 at the RIT Inn and Conference Center in Rochester! This time around we will bring the conference to western NY and join together with three Rochester-based cosponsors: the Gay Alliance of the Genesee Valley (gayalliance.org), Aids Care (acrochester.org) and Rainbow Sage (rainbowsage.org). COLAGE and Gay Parent Magazine will continue as our national cosponsors. The conference hotel is located right off of the NYS Thruway, is roomy (with pool, of course!), and has flexible meeting spaces and very good food. Please drop us an email and ask for more information about the Conference.

Pre-conference provider training day, April 8, 2011. New to next year's program is a full-day of LGBTQ cultural competency training for educators, foster/adoption professionals, and medical and other health and human service providers. Please drop us an email and ask for more information about the provider training day.

Registration is now open for Family Week in Provincetown, MA, which takes place July 31-August 7. This annual gathering of hundreds of LGBTQ families from all over the country is sponsored by Family Equality Council (www.familyequality.org) and COLAGE (www.colage.org). Visit either website for details and to register.

Who Are We?

The Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project is funded by a grant from the New York State Health Department and is dedicated to helping Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender and Queer people in New York State achieve their goals of building and sustaining healthy families. Our network of Pride and Joy Families provides social and educational activities and a sense of community to LGBTQ parents and their children.

Tuesday, May 18, 7-8:30 pm

LGBTQ Adult Education Series, Part 1: Advance Healthcare Planning.

Participants will learn how to make their wishes regarding medical treatment known should they become incapacitated. Tanya Walker, Action for Older Persons, will discuss Health Care Proxies, Living Wills, and DNR (do not resuscitate) orders. Presented by The Cube (thecubebinghamton.org), The Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project (PrideAndJoyFamilies.org) and Temple Concord's Social Action Committee (TempleConcord.com). Event takes place at Identity, 206 State Street. Refreshments provided. Please RSVP to Ethan Lewis, Mpowerment Coordinator, ethan@thecubebinghamton.org, 607.651.9175.

Tuesday, May 25, 7-8:30 pm

LGBTQ Adult Education Series, Part 2: Financial Considerations for LGBTQ People. RJ Barber, Financial Consultant, will discuss special financial planning considerations for LGBTQ people at a session devoted entirely to the subject. Bring a friend and your questions. Presented by The Cube (thecubebinghamton.org), The Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project (PrideAndJoyFamilies.org) and Temple Concord's Social Action Committee (TempleConcord.com). Event takes place at Identity, 206 State Street. Refreshments provided. Please RSVP to Ethan Lewis, Mpowerment Coordinator, ethan@thecubebinghamton.org, 607.651.9175.

Thursday, June 3, 7-8:30pm

LGBTQ Adult Education Series, Part 3: To Marry or Not to Marry? Join Binghamton Attorney Judith Osburn for an evening with members of the LGBTQ and allied communities to help us sort through the complexities of same-sex marriage in New York State. While NY does not permit marriage between people of the same sex, an Executive Order by the Governor requires entities within the State to recognize legal marriages performed elsewhere. Come out and find out what this means for NYS residents. Presented by The Cube (thecubebinghamton.org), The Lesbian and Gay Family Building Project (PrideAndJoyFamilies.org) and Temple Concord's Social Action Committee (TempleConcord.com). Event takes place from 7 to 8:30 pm at Temple Concord, 9 Riverside Drive, Binghamton. Please RSVP to Ethan Lewis, Mpowerment Coordinator, ethan@thecubebinghamton.org, 607.651.9175.

Friday, June 4

Rainbow Flag Raising: Binghamton Pride Coalition and the Mayor's Office will raise the Pride flag on the State Street side of City Hall, downtown, 12 noon. This is a wonderful opportunity to publicly show your support for the local LGBTQ communities.

Sunday, June 6

LGBTQ Community Picnic: Chenango Valley State Park, Pine Plains Pavilion, 1 to 5 pm. Food and soft drinks for purchase. BYO family, friends, sports equipment, hiking boots, beer, bathing suits for an afternoon of music, games and fun in the sun. New this year: pirate-themed games, a treasure hunt and other fun activities for families with children. DJ Hedge of Merlin's spinning tunes. Park entrance fee: $7.00/carload. Event held in cooperation with the New York State office of Parks, Recreation and Historic Preservation-Central Region.

Saturday, June 12

6th Annual Pride Palooza: Live music, speakers, information tables, DJ Hedge of Merlin's spinning tunes, free health screenings and fun. New this year: bounce house and other attractions for families with children. State Street between Hawley and Lewis Streets, downtown. Event runs from 4 to 8 pm.
